

Loving Muslims Together

The Canadian Network of Ministries to Muslims is made up of local networks whose mandate is to serve and facilitate the Canadian Church to minister to Muslims in Canada in the following ways:

- Mobilize workers and congregations
- Network and partner together
- Strategize to effectively reach the Muslims in our neighbourhoods
- Promote prayer

We invite you to join our believers-only website to both contribute and learn together within the secure members area:

Canadian National Conference on Ministry to Muslims

"Loving Muslims Together"

Canadian Network
of Ministries to Muslims

CNMM operates on the partnership platform of the Evangelical Fellowship of Canada

EFC The Evangelical Fellowship of Canada

You're Invited...

Who? Any believer - lay or leader, novice or expert, who wants to grow in effectively loving Muslims to Christ!

Plenary Speaker: Carl Medearis

Carl's family lived among Muslims in Beirut for 12 years. He works with leaders in the West and Arab world towards transformation by the life of Jesus. He is the co-author of "Tea with Hezbollah" and the author of "Muslims Christians, and Jesus".

Women's Speaker: Joy Loewen

Joy lived in Yemen and Somalia with her pioneer missionary parents. She served in Pakistan for 10 years with her husband, and has been an evangelist among Canada's Muslim women for 22 years. Joy is the author of "Woman to Woman, Sharing Jesus with a Muslim Friend".

Wagdi Iskander: He trusted Christ in the Middle East and has served with various missions, pastored Arab churches, reaches Muslims, and equips other Christians to do likewise in Canada where his family lives. He's working on a book.

Rasul & Edna Malik: Born in the Middle East, he and his wife now live in Canada. He's pastored Arab churches here and abroad, but now runs a TV program for the Middle East and speaks across Canada and USA. He also wrote a book on apologetics to Muslims.
